2026 December

Leading the Future, Innovating Solutions

About IECE 2026

An International platform bringing together decision-makers, engineering leaders, investors, public and private sector entities, as well as local and global engineering firms and companies.

The conference presents a more impactful vision for the role of engineering conferences by transforming specialized knowledge into practical impact – advancing the sector's role in major projects, expanding partnership opportunities, and opening wider pathways for collaboration and growth through an integrated experience .
