

The Committee on
Women in Engineering

REPORT ON

ACTIVITIES & PROGRAMMES

2018-2019

CONTENT

- Committee Leadership
- Committee Theme
- Membership
- Summary of 2018 activities
- International Women's Day Celebration
- Participation in UN women Programme in New York
- Water & Sanitation Project
- African Women Engineers confab

COMMITTEE LEADERSHIP

Chair: Engr Valerie Agberagba FNSE NIGERIA

Secretary: Stacey Delvecchio USA

Theme Leads: Theme 1: Engineering workforce Diversity- Stacey

DelVecchio

Theme 2: Leadership & Empowerment- Yvette Ramos

Theme 3: Engineering Strategic Indicators- Ania Lopez

UN SDG- Engr Valerie Agberagba

THEME

Contributing to Global Sustainable Development, Women Engineers Making a Difference with Men as Allies: “Turning Words into Action”.

MEMBERSHIP

The nomination and re-validation of country members is still on-going.

- ❑ 34 Voting Members

- ❑ 6 non voting Members

OUR DECLARATION

- WE realize that collective effort is needed
- Women have variety of roles to play
- Many opportunities for WE to contribute to societal development and also achieve success
- Work with men as Allies
- Help develop a sustainable environment

2018 ACTIVITIES

- Celebrated International Women Day along with our 10th Anniversary
- Recognized our Contributing Past Presidents to Women Committee
- Attended the UN Women 62nd CSW event in New York
- Progressed on our Project on Goal No 6
- Had the first African Women Engineers' Forum
- Conversation with the Girl Child on Engineering
- Had women sessions at the on going GEC, thanks to WFEO/ICE

PROJECT TAKE-OFF

PHOTO SPEAK

- International Women's Day Pictures

MORE PICTURES

African Women Engineers' Conference

Conversation with the Girl Child on Engineering, Water & Sanitation

LOOKING FORWARD

- 2019 International women's Day theme "Think equal, Build Smart, Innovate for Change".
- 64th CSW in New York
- Finalizing the Water & Sanitation Project
- Conversation with the girl child in Slovenia, Nigeria & Lebanon
- Engineering Congress in Australia.